

WEDDING BELLS.

Merrily rang the wedding bells at the home of Mr. Chas. Stuff on Wednesday the 25th inst., when his daughter Martha was given in marriage to Mr. George Scott of Spiritwood.

The ceremony was performed at high noon by Rev. A. M. Hewson of Wimbledon, the service being short, but impressive.

After the hearty congratulations of those present—some being late—the guests, which consisted of relatives and near friends and numbered about forty, sat down to a sumptuous wedding breakfast.

La abundant were the good things provided that our minds reverted to the bible story of the killing of the fatted calf when the wandering one returned home, but we know of none who became angry over the feast, except the turkeys.

The bride was beautifully attired in white silk and wore a spray of orange blossoms. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Sarah Strong.

The groom, according to the custom of his fathers, wore a handsome suit of black and above his palpitating heart rested a spray of orange blossoms. Mr. Wil Scott, brother of the groom, acted as right hand supporter.

The happy young couple will make their future home three miles north of Spiritwood where Mr. Scott has a farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott carry with them the best wishes of the community for their future success and happiness on the unknown sea of matrimony.

The esteem in which this young couple is held was manifest by the many and costly presents they received. A partial list follows:

Mr. and Mrs. Price, large fruit dishes; Mrs. Rick, fruit tray; Miss Lizzie Stuff, decorated tea pot; Miss Jennie Price, fruit set; Mr. and Mrs. Stabenow, water set and tray; Chas. Stuff, clothes wringer. Mrs. Scott, table cloth and towels; Willie and Theo. Price, parlor lamp; Helen Stuff, toilet set; Misses Thoms, silver creamer; Lizzie Stuff, carving set; numerous pieces of money.

P. M.