
Happily Wed.

Tuesday Feb. 14th at High noon in the presence of several relatives and friends occurred the marriage of Samuel Simonson to Miss Dina Solberg at the home of the groom's parents ten miles north of Wimbledon, Rev. Thorsen officiating. The Misses Cerna-Wernland and Anna Micklethune and Messrs. Chas. Anderson and Ole Simonson acted as attendants. After the ceremony dinner was served and the usual congratulations extended. The bride is a charming young lady from Wisconsin state and the groom is one of the hustling and prosperous young farmers north of Wimbledon. The happy young couple have the best wishes of a host of friends for a happy journey through life.
