

Wedding Bells.

On Tuesday, the 10 inst., at 10 o'clock a. m. occurred the marriage of Miss Mary Kokett to John Nowatzeck at the Catholic church in Wimbledon, Rev. Father A. B. Woeste officiating. After the services and the numerous congratulations had been extended the bridal party and a large number of invited guests prepared to the home of the bride's parents where they partook of a wedding feast that was seldom, if ever, equaled in this community. The presents were many, very useful and beautiful. For those who wished to take part, a dance was given, and everyone was well cared for. The affair was a pleasant one and will long remain fresh in the minds of those who were fortunate to be present.

The newly wedded couple at once started house-keeping and with many good wishes for a long, happy and prosperous journey through life
