

The little ten year old son of Olaf Anderson, of Kensal, sustained a fractured skull in some manner unkown, Wednesday. He had apparently been struck by a hatchet or other sharp instrument. Dr. Wanner performed the delicate operation necessary to remove the pieces of bone pressing against the brain. At last accounts the child was doing well,