

Spring! Oh! beautiful Spring!
We feel like making yon hills with ecstasy ring!

This is the way we feel this spring morning, as "Old Sol" sends his warm and brilliant rays out over the broad and fertile prairies of North Dakota.

Farmers are getting ready for spring work. Everybody is busy fixing up their tools and getting ready for a grand rush for the fields.

Herman Bryne went to Valley City, Thursday, on business.

Lon Wilson went to Valley City, Friday, to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law.

The genial countenance of Tom Henderson is seen on our streets once more after an all winter's absence.

Tom Ose was visiting with his father over Sunday.

Mr. Lang is moving his blacksmith shop to the lot across from Lee's barn.

Landlord LaRue has moved his pool tables, cigars, etc., into the addition that he recently fixed up. This gives him considerably more room and at the same time will be more pleasant for customers. Mr. LaRue is a man who does not spare either pains or money when it comes to looking after the comfort of his customers.
He is the right man in the right place.

Mikkelson & Oppegard have added a wagon repairing shop to their outfit. This gives them lots more room. They were crowded for room before.
