

LEAL LOCALS.

Joe Dewhurst visited in Valley City the fore part of last week.

L. Martinson made a business trip to Valley City on Tuesday.

J. Nelson looked after business interests in Wimbledon, Monday.

Wm. Sandy of Wimbledon was in town and vicinity Thursday on business.

J. L. Smith was in Wimbledon looking after business affairs on Thursday.

Mr. Martinson of Rogers was visiting his brother Andrew, who is sick, on Sunday.

Owing to the storm of last week the Delta Society postponed its program until the 15th.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Green spent Wednesday and Thursday in town. Mr. Green was in Valley City Wednesday night.

Miss Hazelett who is visiting her cousin L. Hazelett, went to Valley City Monday to have some dentistry work done.

E. L. Penn and Hattie Runnels took several kodak views of the numerous snow drifts in the village on Saturday.

Mrs. T. Englbritson returned from Wimbledon Monday evening. She had been attending Mrs. Geo. W. Hunt, formerly of Leal.

The crew of the snow plow which went through here Friday night at a terrific rate of speed were evidently lost. A snow bank that had drifted across the track just west of the depot was literally hurled through the west windows of the depot. About a dozen window lights were smashed in and the waiting room filled with snow and broken glass.