

Local Locals.

Ernest Lundy is able to be about again.

Miss Christina Nelson returned from Valley City Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Flewell went to Valley City Tuesday on business.

R. Carr went to Valley City Monday to look after some matters of business.

Mr. and Mrs Wm. Thompson and son Harry went to Valley City Tuesday.

C. A. Dickinson has been in Valley City a few days looking after some business matters.

Chas. Funnell of Foxholm, N. D. is visiting his daughter and friends here this week.

Samuel Oglesby was a business visitor at Valley City the latter part of the week.

F. Lannan who has been looking after business in Valley City returned Thursday morning.

Miss Gray visited at the home of Mrs. Henry Hilborn Saturday Sunday.

On account of small pox, Miss Grace's school was closed last Thursday for three days of the week.

Mr. Peterson and Mrs. Peterson were entertained at the home of the Samsons on Thursday.

Mr. Peterson is acting as agent for the Bascom home on Thursday.

Mr. Will's home on Thursday.

They have points the

The City

Wimbledon -

A. L. OBER, Pres.

The First National

CAPITAL $

MONEY TO LOAN at all APPROPRIATE

INTEREST PAID on

THE BEST LINES OF INSURANCE REPRESENTED.

TAXES PAID

ACCOUNTS OF MERCHANTS, FARMERS

WIMBLEDON,

eastern states, they will also visit in Ontario.

Several pupils of the schools here took the final examination for certificates of completion of the common school subjects, on Thursday and Friday.

Through the aid of Howard Wilson, P. D. Walsh of Courtenay located three strayed horses of his four miles north of here where they had been grazing for a few days near J. H. Flewell's.

Messrs. J. W. and F. B. Widdifield left here on Tuesday evening the former for Uxbridge, Canada and the latter for New Market, Canada. Both will be gone about three months.