

Leal Locals.

(To late for last week.)

The citizens of Leal and vicinity are glad to know that the quarantine has been lifted from the Bascome home.

The Mnsos gave a supper on Thursday evening. It was furnished by Mrs. R. Peterson.

The telegraphic wires and instruments have been removed from the Soo depot at this place thus making this a flag station.

Turner Moore and Fred Kilmer were in town Sunday.

Carl Lawson, who has been visiting at his sister's southeast of here, returned Thursday.

Mr. H. Flewell is having some carpentering done this week.

On Monday evening a company of merry-makers invaded the home of Chris Nelson and all had a splendid time. Mr. Nelson probably enjoyed the surprise and pleasures of the evening more than any of the visitors.

The "Junior Orchestra," under the leadership of Frank Hilborn, is making splendid progress. No better move for advancing the social and moral welfare of the young of the community could have been made. All concerned in it are certainly to be congratulated.

The regular monthly examinations were held at the school house Thursday and Friday. There are at least two reasons why the cautious pupil should welcome examination day: It gives him a chance to review himself on the past month's work and to know where he is weak; it gives him a chance to show his parents how well he has improved his time and opportunity.
