

LEAL LOCALS.

Mr. Anderson of Wimblton looked after affairs at his farm south of town on Tuesday.

Contractor M. Nelson has just completed the stone foundation for Mr. T. L. Hazelett's new barn.

J. J. Merry, agent for the Germania Life Ins. Co., wrote policies in this vicinity during the fore part of the week.

F. P. Young drove his automobile to Valley City on Wednesday and thence to Fargo Thursday, returning on Friday.

H. W. Green has been sick for the past few days but is now improving and will soon be able to resume his usual business.

On Monday Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Flewell took their little daughter Florence to Dr. Wanner at Wimblton to get aid for a soreness of the throat which had affected her ear. She is doing nicely now and will soon be well again.

Prof. P. A. Pickett, who graduates from the state Normal this year, has accepted the principalship of the Fingal schools. The people of Fingal are to be congratulated on having secured the services of so capable a man. His many friends will be pleased to know of his being still in this country and wish him an abundance of success in his coming year's work.