

August Netting is confined to his home with an attack of typhoid fever. Dr. Peake of Valley City has the case in charge and August is doing as nicely as could be expected. A trained nurse from St. Paul is at his bedside, and every attention is being given him. His many friends hope for a most speedy recovery.

---

---