

DEATH OF MRS. G. H. SIMPSON.

A message was received to-day announcing the death of Mrs. George H. Simpson at Fargo last night. The sad news was a shock to the whole community as the deceased was so well known and admired by all. Accompanied by her husband Mrs Simpson left Wimbledon Wednesday evening for Fargo to undergo an operation which, we are informed, was performed yesterday, and the patient died a few hours later. It is impossible to gather anything definite concerning her death at the hour of going to press. The remains will be brought here and taken to the farm home to-night. Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon. A short service at the home at 1 o'clock and at the Presbyterian church Wimbledon at 3 o'clock. The heartfelt sympathy of all go out to the bereaved husband and children.