They lived there until 1887 when they came to the neighborhood of Courtenay where they made their home among the "early settlers."

She was the mother of eleven children all of whom remain to mourn her death which occurred May 3rd, 1914.

"Mother Bond" as she was generally known was loved by all who knew her. She was converted when only 18 years of age and lived a consistent Christian for fifty-five years. Married in Minnesota

Attorney W. H. Padden and Miss Marie Wallsmith were united in wedlock at the home of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Wallsmith, in Madison, Minn., last Tuesday.

Mrs. Padden has visited here on several occasions and is quite well known, being a charming young lady, one who makes friends with the first acquaintance and one of the most popular young ladies of her home town.

Mr. Padden needs no introduction, for he has been among us for some time and is well liked and a capable young attorney.

He has rented the house recently vacated by Mr. Polly and family and expects to be at home with his bride after June 1st. We extend to them the best of wishes for a happy and prosperous married life.
