

Sad News Received Tuesday

A LOYABLE YOUNG WOMAN IS CALLED BY DEATH. A SHOCK TO ENTIRE COMMUNITY

"Edna died this morning, leaving a baby boy."

The above words were flashed over the wires early Tuesday morning to dear friends in this city, of Mrs. Edna L. Lohrke, who was called from this life at Fargo, early Tuesday morning.

The news quickly spread over the city and caused many hearts to fill with sadness on account of such unexpected news.

Mrs. Lohrke was one of the best known young ladies of this section and was loved by all who knew her, being of a kind and cheerful disposition, with a good word for all, and with such good qualities as she possessed, one could not help but like her.

It has only been but a month past since she was here visiting with friends, being on her way from Williston, N. D., to Fargo, where she expected to make her future home. While here she made the remark that she was so glad that Fargo was going to be her home, as she felt like she could commence to enjoy some of the pleasures of life, such as is offered one living in a city, but she little knew, at the time she spoke the above words, that death was so near. She had only a few days ago written to friends here, telling them that she was expecting a visit from them most any day. Death is always a sad part of life to the dear ones who are left to mourn the loss, and in the death of Mrs. Lohrke, it seems unusually sad owing to such an unexpected death.

Mrs. Edna Gallivan Lohrke, was 23 years of age, and was born in Cleveland, O. She moved with her parents, William Gallivan and wife, to Courtenay, N. D., some ten years ago, and resided here until about two years ago. She was married in Courtenay about five years ago to

Mr. Lohrke. Her parents are both dead, her father dying two years ago last December and her mother died the same month a year later. She leaves to mourn her lost, besides her husband, a daughter, aged 3½ years, a son born shortly before her death; also a sister, Mrs. Benedict, who resides in Calgary, Can., and a brother, Harold, who made his home with her.

The funeral will be held from the First Congregational church in Fargo, at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon, Dr. Beard officiating. Burial will be in Fargo cemetery.

Among those from here who went to Fargo to attend the funeral were, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stoddard, Miss Eileen Shepard, George Tucker and Paul Skjersteth.

Married in Jamestown

On last Saturday, at Jamestown, occurred the marriage of two well known young people, who reside southwest of here, the parties being Louis Sodawasser and Miss Julia Braasch.

Mr. Sodawasser is one of the progressive young farmers of this section, while his bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Braasch, residing on a farm in the same neighborhood.

The happy young people returned to the home of the groom Saturday evening, where a gathering of friends had assembled for the purpose of extending congratulations. They will go to housekeeping on his father's farm for the present.

Killed By Retort Explosion.

Hillsboro. — William Witherow, a resident of Hillsboro until five years ago, was accidentally killed at Blaine, Wash., by the blowing out of the door of a retort in a cannery.

"Bottleggers" Quitting N. D.

Grand Forks, N. D., July 16.—North Dakota blind piggers, numbering at least 200, have left this state since the Webb bill became effective. They have departed for South Dakota and for Canada, according to F. L. Watkins, superintendent of the state enforcement league.

Money For Exposition.

Dickinson.—A local committee will raise $2,000 to conduct the Stark county industrial exposition which will be held here in the fall.