usiner Burleson left Tuesday evening for Fargo, having received a telephone message that day that Rev. J. P. Richmond, a fore mer partor of the Congregation-- al church here, and who two weeks ago was married to Miss Nina f Chappel of this place, passed away in a horrital at that place. The particulars of his death have not been learned, but it is understord that death was sudden.