

Rev. Merchant S. Riddle

Died in California

Rev. Merchant Riddle, who was formerly the Presbyterian minister at this place, died a few days ago in California.

Rev. Riddle was located here for about three years, and did good work. In 1908 he accepted a call to the Presbyterian church at LaMoure, LaMoure County, and was there until about a year ago, going to California from there, from which state news comes of his death.

He was considered an earnest and hard worker, and had many friends here.
