

George Simpson a prominent and well known farmer, residing near Leal, died in a hospital at Valley City, Sunday morning. He was kicked last Friday in the leg by a cow, death being caused by some of the marrow getting in to the circulation. The funeral was held in Leal Tuesday and was one of the largest ever held there, some 80 Masons being in attendance, of which lodge he was a faithful member. Among those who attended were Hans Strandness, Mrs. Stoddard, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Prosser, Iro Puder, Loran Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Lovelace and Mrs. Frank Wilson of this place.

---