
MET WITH DEATH—

A transient by the name of John Wiedman, who was employed at putting on storm windows at Kensal, was instantly killed the first of the week. He was trying to adjust a storm window from a ladder and in some unknown manner slipped and fell, breaking his neck. He was a man of about 30 years of age, a German. A cousin was located who sent money to care for the burrying of the unfortunate man.
