

Married in Minneapolis

WELL KNOWN MAN, FORMERLY OF
THIS PLACE, ENTERS WED-
LOCK ON THE 14TH

James H. Cooper, until five years ago, a resident of this place, now one of the influential citizens of Williston, N. D., was married on June 14th to Mrs. Carolyn M. Weston, of St. Paul, who formerly resided at Edgeley, N. D.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper departed over the Pioneer Limited in the evening for eastern points, expecting to be gone about two weeks, after which they will return to Williston, to make their future home, where Mr. Cooper is vice president of the First National bank, a member of the city commission and a helpful member of the cities business bodies.