

Geo. Wraalstead, who has been on a homestead in Montana for the past year, has arrived in Courtenay and will remain for some time. He reports that the crops in Montana, especially near Big Sandy, near where he resides, the very best. All the Courtenities living in that territory, are doing nicely and prospering. He stated that Clarence Edwards in order to help care for his holdings, went to South Dakota recently and brought back a wife, and is now nicely settled into married life. Ernest Lundeen is enjoying a fine mercantile business and all are well pleased with the country.
