

10 Years Ago News

Sam Pearson sold a half interest in his meat market to his brother-in-law, Fred Swanson of Bue. They purchased two lots on Main street just across from Arthur Edward's livery barn and immediately began the erection of a new meat market.

Jerry Reid purchased of C. A. Sanford the building and lot occupied by the Gazette outfit.

Miss Minnie Genzel, daughter of Charles Genzel, who resides northeast of Jamestown, was married on Saturday to Andrew Linge of Wimbledon.

T. J. Atwood has begun im-