

Ben Chmelik returned home from Valley City last Friday evening with his little daughter who had been receiving treatment there for a broken limb and other injuries which she received in a fall a short time ago. The little child is recovering nicely.