School is now in full motion, o - all teachers arriving in time for h e the opening. The enrollment is the first day was considerably c increased over the opening day i of last year. It is expected that F several will start later on, as the u rush work in the country require in their services at the present o time.