

J. S. Day shipped in a carload of household goods and farm machinery last Friday morning from Courtenay, N. D., and commenced immediately to haul the goods to his claim west of town and to make everything ready for the arrival of his family.—
Big Sandy, Montana, Mountaineer.