

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE—

A unique celebration of Washington's birthday was celebrated at the the Jasper Dick home in town, it being Jasper Dick, Jr., birthday. A big surprise was planned and very effectively carried out. Charley secured a job for "Jack" until after the usual supper hour and upon Jack's return home he was greeted by a houseful of friends and relatives whom he supposed were safe at the farm. The house was lighted by an immense cake bearing sixteen candles. A four course dinner was served, Jack's pet turkey holding the seat of honor. Floy Wilson secured the ring in the cake, and as a lasting tribute of the occasion, Jack's father presented his blushing son with a beautiful gold watch and chain.
