

News From South of Town

Mr. James Mitchell was an arrival from Minneapolis last Sunday morning and visited at the Albert Trapp home. He left Monday morning for Carrington and other points where he transacted some business.

Mr. Charles Gilcher of Buchanan is visiting at Albert Trapp's.

Miss Clara Trapp of Glenwood City, Wisconsin, arrived at Courtenay last Sunday morning and is visiting at the A. C. Trapp home, she being a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Trapp.

Fred Sipple and Louis Mix were the guests Sunday of A. C. Trapp.

The Misses Olga Trapp and Clara Trapp of Glenwood City, Wisconsin, called at Mrs. Kruger's and also on the Misses Scharf last week.

Glenfield News

Mrs. A. E. Olson was on the sick list Monday.

A. W. Johnson and family, also Miss Betsey Johnson, spent Saturday evening and Sunday with relatives at Cooperstown.

Roy Nelson, who has spent the past two weeks with a sister at Bemidji, Minn., arrived home Thursday morning.

S. W. McGuat of McHenry, transacted business here several days last week.

Wm. Watson of Sutton, was a caller here Tuesday.

A number from here attended the dance at McHenry, Thursday evening. A very pleasant time is reported.

Velma Niles is sewing at J. A. Ahrens this week.

A bright little lady made her appearance at the John Hendrickson home, Thanksgiving. Mother and child are doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Allison spent Saturday evening at Adolph Sollum's.

Minnie Johnson and Lottie Posey called on Mrs. S. H. Thorpe, Monday evening.

Mr. Broten of Walum, visited his brother, John, here Monday.

Glenfield had a general cleaning up Saturday evening. And you had ought to have seen the laundry basket Monday.

John Broten spent Thanksgiving with friends at Rogers.

Mildred Pierson was quite ill the fore part of the week. Dr. LaBeen was in attendance.

Mrs. Zack Posey and children spent Saturday evening and Sunday with relatives near Sutton.

Minnie and Gusta Johnson were entertained at A. Sollum's Friday evening.