

Carl Haag has been at work at T. C. Weatherbees' putting in a large cistern. He has it completed at this writing and has been at work of late at O. E. Creightons' and has put a cistern in their also. There seems to be quite a demand for this kind of work around here this fall and Carl is the man that can do it.