

Iro Hays expects to load out two cars of stock and household goods this week and ship them to his farm near Great Falls, Mont., where he will farm. Mr. Hayes has a fine farm in that country and has decided that the best place for him is on his own land. This community will regret very much the loss of the Hayes family, but all will wish them prosperity in their new home.