

News from Jim Lake

John and Joe Buddish spent Sunday evening at the O. D. Wood home.

R. H. Koves was a business-caller in Kensal Friday.

Miss Mae Bingham was greatly surprised last Thursday evening when about twenty-five young folks from the vicinity called on her. The event was in favor of the young lady's birthday. They played games and danced until an early hour. All reported a good time.

F. O. Wood was a business caller in Kensal Monday.

James Karson called at the O. D. Wood home Tuesday evening.

John and Joe Buddish went to Kensal Tuesday, returning Wednesday.

John Counsilman was a business caller in Kensal Friday.

C. D. and F. O. Wood were business callers in Pingree, Saturday.

Mrs. H. A. Hammersteadt called in Kensal last Monday.

R. H. Koves was a business caller in Kensal Monday.

Guy Yager went to Fargo Sunday evening, returning Monday evening.

Clara and Alice Gunther called at the O. D. Wood home Sunday.