The show given here last Friday evening by the Big City Minstrels, comprised of Courtenay talent assisted by J. M. Foss who was instrumental in working up this production, was the best show that the Kensal people have had the pleasure of enjoying for years. It was a clean and thoroughly up-to-date show, and was very much appreciated as was evidenced by the patronage given it. Each member of the troupe executed his part as tho he might have been a regular participant in that vocation. After the show a four-piece orchestra furnished music for a dance which the young people enjoyed for several hours. Should the Courtenay troupe return to our town in the future with a like production, we assure them our liberal patronage.

Walter Craven returned last week from his extensive visit abroad to his old home in Scotland. It had been nearly twenty years since Walt had left the old home, and his visit with relatives and friends was thoroughly enjoyed, as well as the visit to the many haunts in and around the old home. Walt visited in Eastern Canada enroute home.

and Mrs. John Sorenson, two members of the order. About midnight refreshments were served and all present reported an enjoyable evening.

A freight was wrecked on Tuesday afternoon a few miles the other side of Leal, about 14 cars being derailed and a half mile of track being torn up. A number of the Soo's fast trains were run over the N. P. track between Rogers and Carrington. No delay in the mail service was caused, as all the mail from the east was transferred at the point of the wreck, service being given us by 106, which after changing crews was again run west, having tied up at Wimbledon on Tuesday night.

Mrs. Jos. Nogosek entertained a number of her friends last Sunday, the occasion being her birthday. An elegant six-course dinner was served at six o'clock. Mrs. Nogosek was the recipient of many beautiful presents.

Seed Corn

Buy seed corn that is acclimated to this locality. Don't buy Iowa and Nebraska corn. You can get northern grown seed corn this year as well as before. Although seed corn is scarce, we can supply our old customers.
