

Kensal News Items

Mrs. J. R. Smith left Saturday evening for Oakes where she will remain for sometime with her daughter Mrs. Ed. Johnson.

Sig. Ringerud of Enderlin spent Sunday here with friends.

Mr. and Mr. Geo. Oysewski of Courtenay attended Mass here on Sunday.

The Kenmare order of the Danish Brotherhood of America came down here last Saturday evening to participate in the social time given by the order of this place, the occasion was a basket supper from the sale of which something in the neighborhood of $100 was realized. One of the merry making features of the evening's amusement was the tug of war between the two teams, the Kensal team winning out. The evening was concluded with dancing.

Miss Benedict of Enderlin was the guest Sunday and Monday of her sisters, Mrs. G. E. Yonker and Mrs. Leonard.

O. A. Nichols who has been visiting here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Nichols and brother F. L. and family left on Friday evening last for his home in Iowa.

F. L. Nichols and brother, O. A., were business visitors in Glenfield last week.

The L. Eaton home north of Kensal is quarantined for diphtheria, the afflicted one being Miss Anderson, a sister-in-law of Geo. Eaton. At last reports Miss Anderson was getting along nicely.

Miss Jones was hostess at a surprise party given in her honor by her scholars last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Hilma Kolb.

Blanche Smith of Courtenay visited at the J. R. Smith home last week.

O. B. Christopherson and Herbert Croonquist returned the latter part of last week from Chicago, where they were making their spring purchases. Mrs. Christopherson while away secured the services of a first class milliner, who will assume her new duties here about March 1st.

John Harris arrived the latter part of last week from Wisconsin, where he has been visiting relatives, after looking after business matters here for a short time, he will leave for Hingham, Mont.

The moving picture shows given here on last Monday and Tuesday evenings by the Christy Co., were the best of the kind that has ever visited Kensal, and a liberal patronage was given them.

H. P. Neilson and family of Carrington, attended the basket supper given here Saturday evening given by the Danish Brotherhood of America.

Mrs. O. E. Holmes and sister, Miss Julia Erickson, enjoyed a visit the latter part of last week from their brother, who was on his way home to Fertile, Minn., after an extended visit through the eastern and southern states.

Mrs. Mary Klein and daughter arrived last week from Illinois and will make their home north of town. Ralph Klein, a son of Mrs. Klein, has rented a farm north of here.

The Thibado home is quarantined for diphtheria, Eldon the little son being the afflicted one.

Dr. McKenzie of Carrington, was in town on Tuesday, being called to the L. Eaton home north of town.

Some fine celery for Saturday at Lindh's Confectionery.

John Spinarski and Martin J. Albright took in the sights at Wimbledon on Monday.

FOR RENT—Half section land with good buildings and water. B. H. Stoddard.

On another page will be found an auction sale notice to be held on the Frank Kingsley farm, twenty miles northeast of here. The sale will be a large one, he having a fine line for the farmers to choose from. Read over the articles to be sold, and if there appears anything you are looking for, you had better take advantage of this sale.
