PUBLISHED ON THURSDAY OF EACH WEEK

Entered as second class matter at the post-office at Courtenay, North Dakota, under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

All copies for advertising, local readers and notices of any kind must be sent in not later than Wednesday evening if to be inserted in the succeeding issue of each week.

North Dakotans, because of the fact that they make money from their North Dakota investments, are constantly importuned by salesmen for all kinds of so-called "Investment propositions," which range from distant land purchases down through the sale to mining stocks, wild cat industrial stocks, oil stocks, and many other "get rich quick" propositions. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are lost to our people every year through these channels, which might be saved were the inventor to stop to think that were the propositions as promising as the salesmen present them, that it would not be necessary to send him out to sell the stock.

In New York there is a new fad for those who have been divorced, this among the women. They keep the engagement ring given them by their divorced husband, but change it to another finger to show that they have been divorced and are ready for another venture. This important piece of news is carried in the Associated Press dispatches, and the people pay for these in advertising and in subscriptions. The brazen effrontery of many of the New York divorces is but the exhibition of animal depravity and the people should show their condemnation of it.—Fargo Searchlight.
