

Kensal News Items

Mr. Fred Leete of Robinson, visited with his parents over Sunday.

Mr. G. E. Yonker is the new agent for the Minnekota Elevator Co., taking the place of Mr. Hugo Hillmer

Roy Sterrett and Otto Druckery are in Montana looking up a good homestead.

Max Feckler returned from St. Paul Sunday morning and will spend his summer vacation with his father.

Mrs. August Swanson of Carrington, is visiting at the J. W. Johnson home.

Miss Mid Peterson returned to Courtenay Sunday evening, having spent a few days at the Longstreeth home.

Chester Tufford and Willie Roach attended the Firemens Tournament at Williston this week.

Mr. L. C. Lane left Tuesday evening for Fargo, and Mrs. Lane will leave in a few days.

Mrs. Kline of Binford, visited with her parents Mr. and Mrs. James Nelson the latter part of last week.

At Blaine, Washington, on May 6, occurred the death of Mrs. J. D. Thompson. Mrs. Thompson had been in poor health for some time and after spending the winter in California was feeling much better and was thought to be out of danger. The immediate cause of death was heart failure. Mr. Thompson was the Soo agent at this place for two years and during her stay here Mrs. Thompson made a host of friends who will be sorry to hear of her sudden demise. There are left to mourn the loss the husband and two children, Gladys aged ten, and Bubbs aged four, beside the mother, Mrs. S. Dahlquist and Miss Mary of Forrest City, Ia., Enoch Dahlquist of Ada, Minn., M. T. Dahlquist of Minot and Mrs. Albin Homer of San Jose, Cal.

The remains were taken to Forrest City, Iowa, for burial, services being held from the family residence on Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Gladys and A. J. Thompson went to Casselton Sunday evening and from there accompanied their brother J. D. Thompson to Forrest City, Iowa.

Mrs. J. C. Wold and children of Jamestown are visiting at the Wm. Walke home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Nichols visited in Courtenay Sunday evening.

The Kensal Nine was defeated 10 to 3 by Carrington on the Kensal diamond Sunday evening.

Mrs. Jennie White returned Monday morning from Valley City where she transacted business last week.

Mrs. Carl Onstadt and children and Miss Anna Croonquist arrived Monday evening. Mrs. Onstadt will visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Croonquist for several weeks and Miss Anna will spend her summer vacation at home.