

News From Our Kensal Correspondent

Ben Wilkinson went to Kramer on Monday morning where he will assist in the Rogers yard there for a few days.

A number of the eighth grade and high school girls have been camping at Arrowood lake for a few days. The party was chaperoned by the Misses Belle Wilson and Christine Follansbee.

The members of the Boys Scouts accompanied by Rev. H.
Hynes went to the lake on Monday morning where they will remain the entire week. The boys are getting much enjoyment out of the boat, which they made and which they called the "Boys Scout."

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Cattleberry, former residents of this place, were guests here Sunday at the Dr. Longstreth home.

Chas. Collison returned last Thursday evening from Garrison, where he has been assisting the Langworthy yards there for the past month.

Mrs. Sophus Frederickson and Mrs. Albert Hanson are visiting relatives at Golden Valley, N. D.

Mrs. U. E. Thayer visited friends in Carrington on Tuesday.

Miss Gladys Thompson and J.
E. Son attended the concert given by the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra at Valley City on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. O. B. Christopherson and little daughter, Olaris, left Wednesday, evening for Kester, Minn., the parental home of Mrs. Christopherson where they will make an extended visit.

Miss Olara Ronholm arrived the first of the week from Aalborg, Denmark and is visiting at the Knud Christensen home.
Miss Ronholm intends to remain here permanently.

O. E. Holmes and family accompanied by Miss Julia Erickson left via auto for Fargo on Wednesday. Miss Erickson and the little Misses Julia and Olga Holmes will leave from there for Fertile, Minn., the home of Miss Erickson. Mr. and Mrs. Holmes will return home after a short stay in Fargo.

Mrs. Chas. Pierce and little son, Melvin, returned home Monday morning for Rochester, Minn., where little Melvin underwent an operation of the removal of his tonsils.

The Misses Gladys and Bird Thompson attended the Memorial service in Carrington last Friday.

The Misses Jones, Rosbook and Mauritsen left last Thursday evening for their homes, where they will spend their summer vacations, their homes being in St. Paul, Staples and Shelly, Minn.

E. D. Eatton, a veteran of the Civil war, joined a number of his remaining comrades and together they honored the memory of their dead comrades by taking part in the Memorial day services, which was so fittingly observed at Carrington by the people there.

W. C. Tripp and wife returned home Sunday morning. They have been visiting relatives in Iowa since Mrs. Tripp was released from the Mayo hospital at Rochester where she underwent a serious operation.

J. B. Williams, Asst., Cashier of the Security state bank of this place went over to Jaunits last Sunday to assume the duties of cashier during the absence of the regular cashier. Mr. Williams returned to Kensal on Tuesday.