THE CONGRESSIONAL RACE

The candidacy of Col. W. P. Tuttle of Dawson, Kidder county is meeting with favor throughout the entire second congressional district. The straightforward declarations of Mr. Tuttle as to his political beliefs, his sound republicanism, his splendid business qualifications for the position, and his clear knowledge of the needs of the people of this district and state and his eminent fitness and ability to go and get the things that the people of the district need in the way of legislation, make him the best equipped candidate of those now before the republicans of the districts for a primary choice.

Tuttle is being heartily supported by republicans of his district who are thoroughly tired of factional bickering and quarreling; who have had enough of empty protestation and virtue and merit; who do not care whether this leader or that leader gets a personal vindication, but who want candidates for office who have an interest in the people themselves and who stand for principles rather than personal aggrandizement.

As a candidate for congress, Mr. Tuttle brings, first, the successful business record of a life time; as a boy on the farm, as the operator of a mill at a youthful age, as a business man with interest running in hundred of thousands, as an investor in North Dakota farm lands, he has been successful. His judgement is sound, his knowledge of affairs thorough, and his record is that of a capable, honest and reliable business.

Mr. Tuttle has been interested in the growth and prosperity of North Dakota for twenty years. He has testified to his faith in the state by the purchase and ownership of 14,000 acres of farming land. He has served a term in the state legislature, where his record was that of the wise business man, well schooled by a life time of experience. He has a wide acquaintance with the business and public men of the nation. He is energetic, frank square and capable. The republican voters of the second district could do no wiser thing than cast their ballots for Mr. Tuttle as their first choice for congressman and as he has made good so he will make good for them. — Bismarck Tribune.

It is the duty of every republican voter to vote for J. A. Buchanan for governor as his first choice and any person who should feel that they ought to vote for some other candidate, should, by all means give him his second choice vote.
