

News From Our Kensal Correspondent

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Teofil Morzek on the 7th inst.

Chas. Weschcke of St. Paul was here the first of last week looking after his farm which he purchased thru Geo. DuBois, while Mr. Weschcke was a guest at the DuBois home.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Radke and babe arrived on Saturday morning for a visit at the parental home of Mr. Radke.

Miss Myrtle Linderman, who has been teaching a term of school north of town, left last week for her home in Minnesota.

The Messrs. Clendenning of Wimbledon and Burns of Jamestown were guests on Sunday of O.B. Christopherson and family.

D. S. Greenen was transacting business in town the latter part of last week, returning to his home in Valley City on Friday evening.

Mrs. H. W. Hayes and sister, Mrs. Scott of Glen Ullin, Sask., left Monday morning for their trip to England, where they will spend the summer at their old home there, with their mother and sister who still make their home in England. Rev. Hynes accompanied Mrs. Hynes and her sister as far as Minneapolis, returning home Tuesday morning.

H. O. Hanson of Grace City, spent Sunday here with friends.

Harry Cornell of McHenry Sundayed here.

Miss Anna Schiedt and John Bloomberg of the Northwestern Telephone Co., transacted business here last week.

Mrs. Wing arrived last week from Menomonie, Wis., and is employed as housekeeper at the Anton Feckler home.

Miss Stacy Neberlee spent Sunday with her parents at Drake, returning here Sunday evening.

Kasper Wojick sold his farm, which is the north half of section 19-144-64, through DuBois, the land man.

James Ryan arrived from Kilbourn, Wis., on Wednesday morning. He has again been employed as pitcher for the Kensal team, and we look for some more good games this season. The first game will be played here on Sunday between Buchanan and Kensal.

Miss Laura Ferguson entertained on Wednesday evening a number of the young ladies, the occasion being in honor of Miss Christine Follansbee, the assistant principal of our school, who will leave at the close of the school year for her home at Ernie, Iowa.