

Kensal News Items

Dr. Longstreth reports the birth of a daughter at the R. N. Romalfanger home on the 27th inst.

The Misses Agnes Schlect and Mabel Frederickson came up Saturday evening and visited a couple of days here with relatives and friends.

O. E. Holmes autoed over to Jamestown on Saturday afternoon, accompanied by Mrs. T. M. Hjorth and the Misses Christine Follansbee and Gladys Thompson, the three ladies making the trip over to meet Mrs. Myra B. Enright of Kansas City, Kansas, Supreme Oracle of the R. N. A. Lodge, and Mrs. Margaret Miller of Fargo, State District Deputy. After the initiation of a class of thirty-one candidates, a banquet was tendered the visiting neighbors.

J. D. Thompson, who has been visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Thompson, and his little daughter, Gladys, left on Sunday morning for Hosmer, B. O., where he expects to remain.

G. A. Richardson, who has been operator on the second trick for the past few months left on Tuesday evening for Glenwood, Minn., where he will work extra for a short time. Mrs. Richardson and little Gordon left for Minot on Tuesday morning, where they will visit relatives for sometime.

Mrs. Chase entertained a number of her friends at a sewing bee last Thursday evening. The ladies enjoyed the dainty lunch served by the hostess.

Miss Chance of Oberon, N. D., is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Nick Nelson.

Carl Nelson went up to Turtle Lake on Monday, where he will spend a few days on business.

Geo. E. Berg returned Tuesday morning from Goodrich, where he has been looking after the threshing of his crop in that vicinity. Geo. was compelled to leave his car at Goodrich owing to the inclemency of the weather.

John Tufford, Democratic candidate for Register of Deeds, was away several days last week at Jamestown and other Stutsman county points.