

Kensal Items

(Continued on Page 3)

the evening with her father. Miss Kelly will graduate from the Normal this month.

Mr. and Mrs. McFadden of Courtenay attended Mass here last Sunday morning.

Miss Dora Frederickson left last Friday morning accompanied by her cousin, who has been visiting here, for Courtenay and Dazey, where they will visit relatives.

Mrs. J. J. Brom and children left Wednesday evening for Pine City, Minn., where they will visit for some time at the home of Mrs. Brom's parent.

Mrs. G. B. McKenzie and son, Sherman, left on Wednesday for Jamestown where they will spend several days visiting friends.

Mr. Patton of Sioux Falls, N. D. editor of the Odd Fellows World has calling on friends here Monday and Tuesday.

Frank Heaney and Miss Mae McBride autoed over from Glenfield on Monday evening, Miss McBride taking the evening train from here for her home in Weyburn, Sask. Miss McBride has spent the past week with friends at Glenfield.

Carl Krantz who for the past year has been employed at the O. E. Holmes drug store, left on Tuesday morning for Valley City, where he has secured a position at the Rudolph Pharmacy. Mr. Krantz has made many friends during his stay in Kensal who were sorry to see him leave, but who wish him an abundance of success in his new position at Valley City.

A party was given last Saturday evening at the Julius Frederickson home in honor of Miss Blanche Smith of Courtenay. The young people enjoyed themselves with music and various games.

Miss Florence Frederickson and Stella Guslander accompanied Miss Blanche Smith to her home in Courtenay on Sunday evening, returning home on Monday.