

KENSAL ITEMS

Miss Christine Christensen is assisting in the Christopher-son Co's store during the absence of Mr. Christopherson.

Mrs. C. R. Sterrett returned home Saturday evening from her visit with relatives and friends in LaFayette, Ind.

Carl Simonson, his mother and sister, Miss Christine, returned home from Northfield, Minn., the latter part of last week.

E. R. Robinson transacted business in Jamestown on Monday.

Spike Thayer was a passenger to Mandan on Monday.

The dance given on Friday evening by Grant Partlow, was well attended; the music was furnished by Son's orchestra, and everyone present enjoyed dancing until the early hours of the next morning.

Rev. Stickney of Fargo, occupied the pulpit in the Congregational church Sunday morning.

Word was received here on Saturday of the death at Jamestown of John Caven, Sr., who passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Anderson.

George E. Berg attended the democratic convention in Fargo last week.

Among those who attended the Tri-State Grain Growers convention in Fargo, last week, were Anton and Jens Pederson, John Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hoover.

Mrs. John Cysewski was a passenger to Jamestown last Saturday morning, where she will spend several days with her parents.

J. E. Son, our genial Soo agent, spent Monday evening with friends in Carrington, attending the dance given by Langley's orchestra while there.

Miss Lottie Posey is finishing the unexpired term of Miss Myrtle Linderman, who taught in the R. O'Neil district.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. O'Neill were visitors in Valley City the latter part of last week.

Dr. Longstreth reports the birth of a daughter at the Louis Burleson home on the 19th inst.

Messrs. Walters and Knight of Carrington, assisted with the music at the dance given here Friday evening.

Dan Clancy, Jr., is confined to his bed suffering with a severe attack of rheumatism.

John Kline, who has been assisting at the Cash Store in getting settled in their new quarters, left for Wimbledon, where he will remain permanently.

O. B. Christopherson left Sunday evening for the twin cities and possibly Chicago, where he will transact business for several days.

F. L. Thompson of Carrington, our former agent, was in town between trains Friday evening last.

F. J. Heaney Sundayed in Wimbledon.