

KENSAL.

Rev. A. D. Cumming of Bordulac was a visitor here on Monday.

H. P. Neilsen and family, and the Misses Sorenson of Carrington attended the Danish Xmas tree exercises here last Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brewer and son Arthur left Tuesday evening for the Cities, where they will be joined by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kern of Sentinel Butte, N. D., and from there will proceed to California to spend the balance of the winter.

Miss Alma Johnson returned to Fargo Tuesday evening after spending a week here with her sister and friends.

Miss Ida North returned home Sunday morning after spending her Xmas vacation with relatives in Comstock, Wis.

Miss Jeanette Carmody left Tuesday morning for the Cities where she expects to spend about three weeks visiting friends, after which time she will return to Kensal and take up her duties as clerk for the Kensal Cash Store having severed her connection with the Christopherson Company the first of the year.

Prof. Sven Hanson of Sanborn and Iver Grindstein of McHenry arrived Monday night for several days visit at the C. J. Croonquist home.

Mrs. F. L. Thompson and daughters Vera and June returned from St. Paul on Monday morning. Mrs. Thompson left her mother feeling much improved in health.

Mrs. C. R. Sterrett left last week for her old home in Lafayette, Ind., for a visit with relatives and friends.

J. D. Schlect returned from Minneapolis on Saturday evening having spent a week there on business.

Miss Birdie Williams of Rochester, Minn., is spending the week with friends in Kensal.

Glen Farrar purchased the J. Peterson residence and moved into his new home last week.

Miss Blanche Booth and brother Roy of Valley City are guests at the home of their sister, Mrs. O. M. Wilkinson.

Arthur Erickson returned from Buffalo, Minn., last Thursday morning where he had been visiting with her parents before going up into western Canada where a lucrative position awaits him.

Miss Laura Ferguson returned to Minneapolis on Tuesday morning where she will resume her studies at the Curtis Business College.

Miss Myrtle Linderman returned to Minneapolis on Tuesday evening for her home in Harmony, Minn. Miss Linderman just finished a term of school in the Rob O'Neil school north of town.

Toney Fredrickson returned to Jamestown on Tuesday evening to resume his duties as juryman, having returned home last Saturday evening to spend New Years with his family.

A number of the young people were pleasantly entertained at the Albert Hanson home on Saturday evening in honor of Arthur Erickson who left Sunday morning for Canada.

The Danish Xmas tree held in the I. O. O. F. Hall last Wednesday evening was a grand success. A large crowd was in attendance, and after the singing of several selections of the choir, and the distribution of presents by Santa Claus, the floor was cleared and everyone, both young and old enjoyed dancing the until early hours of morning. At midnight an elegant supper was served by the ladies to which all did ample justice.

A Leap Year party was given at the Commercial Hotel on Monday evening, the young people enjoyed the evening in enjoying games, the principal feature of the evening being dancing. At midnight all enjoyed the delicious repast which had been prepared for them.