

Miss Sue O'Laughlin, who has been engaged as teacher in the city schools for the past two terms, resigned her position here and left Sunday evening for Moorhead, Minn., where she will finish her studies at the normal school. The course necessary for the completion of her normal work, is taught during the spring term only, which begins the first week in March, and must be taken to entitle her to a first-grade teacher's certificate.

---