

W. H. Polly, who resides southwest of town, is the latest to have sale bills printed, he having had Thursday, October 15, set as a day for a sale at his farm. Mr. Polly has decided to quit farming, and has several who are desirous of renting the place. Mr. Polly has not determined what he will do but will move to town for the present.