

ture.

Peter Rudolph loaded a car of household goods last Saturday and left that evening for his new home at Delno, Minn., where he will farm on land which he bought some time ago. Mr. Rudolph has disposed of all of his holdings here, after a long period of farming and he will be greatly missed.