

The telephone exchange at this point, which has been under quarantine for the past two weeks, owing to illness of Miss Scheidt with diphtheria, was fumigated today and the quarantine lifted. The office of Dr. Shepard has been fumigated and all danger of anyone taking the same is over.

---