

Dr. and Mrs. G. P. Shepard left this morning for Chicago where the doctor will take a course in special work. He will specialize in the eye, ear, nose and throat. He may, after completing his course, return to this state, and open up an office.