

Herman Skjerseth, who has been located at McHenry for the past ten weeks, in the bank there, spent Sunday here with his brother Paul, and his many friends. He departed on Monday for Anamoose, N. D., where he has accepted the position of cashier in the bank there. His many friends here are glad to see him getting to the front.