

Local Happenings of the Week

G. G. Brown was a Valley City visitor on Monday and Tuesday last.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Stoaks and Pat Quick were Jamestown visitor on Saturday last.

Ye Editor did the eavetroughing work at the Weatherbee home on last Saturday.

Mrs. G. G. Brown and Miss Jessie Brown left on Monday for Iowa, where they will visit relatives for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Johnson and children were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Sisson over Thanksgiving.

Edward and Clarence Johnson are enrolled now in the Spiritwood school. They are staying at the home of their aunt and uncle.

It is reported that twins were born to Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Weiss not long ago. Mother and children are well and papa wears the big smile.

A birthday party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Gainsforth of this place. It was the 68th birthday of Mr. Gainsforth and the event was enjoyed by all. It accurred on Saturday evening last.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Clamp of this town was the scene of a little party the other night. Quite a number of out of town guests were there and the evening was an enjoyable one and well spent by all that were there.

The many friends of Miss Gina Pederson of Fertile, Minn., will be sorry to learn that she was accidently shot in the foot not long ago. However at the present writing she is getting along fine, and will be out after a few days.

Mrs. C. A. Flynn of Eckleson, passed away at the Duluth hospital on Nov. 29th. She was brought to her old home and interment was made in the Sanborn cemetary on Monday. The Bugle sympathizes with the bereaved in their sorrow. Mrs. Flynn was a little over middle aged and was a very nice woman to meet in her home, always having a good word and a smile for everyone.

Robert Schwehr as a business caller here on Tuesday last.

Otto Stuff is having a well dug on his lots here in town and near the hotel.

Quite a bunch of traveling men have called on the business men of this town recently.

Herbert Gordon is spending a week or so at the home of his brother at Fingal, N. D.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Johnson of Eckleson were up at the Gainsforth birthday party last Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Squire are now comfortably located in the Creighton property in town and intend to spend the winter here.

Fred O. Fried was a Jamestown and Wimbledon caller on Thanksgiving. He made the trip on his motorcycle returning the next morning.

Rudolph Kruska shipped a car load of iron to the Fargo foundry not long ago. This is the way to make money in this country by collecting old scrap iron and selling it for spending money.

It is reported that Frank Marshke has sold his farm out in California. He states that he got a good price out of it. He and his wife are living, at the present time, on the old Davis place south of town.

Peter Hardlicka, who has been working for J. N. Johnson all summer departed for his home at Winthrop, Minn., on Tuesday last. He is well pleased with North Dakota and may come up again in the spring.

Frank Balch, who recently bought a half section of land south of Urbana, has purchased material and has built himself and family a new home, and intends to become permanent settlers here. They are from Edgeley, N. D.

Carl Haag has been at work at T. C. Weatherbees' putting in a large cistern. He has it completed at this writing and has been at work of late at O. E. Creightons' and has put a cistern in their also. There seems to be quite a demand for this kind of work around here this fall and Carl is the man that can do it.