Billy Hayes spent Friday in Jamestown.

L. B. Stoaks is expected to arrive home some time soon.

David Price was a Jamestown visitor on Wednesday on business.

Frank Lundeen and wife returned Saturday from Rochester, Minn.

Robt. Stronz and Eugene Stroh, both of Ekluson, were callers here Wednesday.

Raymond Sherman returned from Jamestown on Wednesday afternoon after having some dental work done.

Rounseville and Doty have received two cars of lumber and are having them unloaded by John Davison and August Anderson.

J. J. Hall, who resides north of town, has purchased one of the automatic cream separators. He is the first one around here that has invested in one of these separators.

The Spiritwood Machine Co. of this place which we stated in our last issue, was recently organized, are receiving some machinery for the spring business. We are not aware at this writing who the participants of the new firm are, but reports have it that it is Ralph Dresser, Sr. and Chas. Mahoney.

John Moran is on the sick list.

Theo. Price has completed his house and has it in nice shape.

The better farming meeting which was to take place on Feb. 28, was postponed and took place on March 1st.

Mrs. Max Rich and the school teacher who teaches in Rose school district visited at the county seat Saturday.

The Oscar Shackelton auction came off without delay on Monday. Quite a number from here attended.

Fred Freid was a Jamestown caller on business Saturday. He went from there to Winbleton on business and a visit with the home folks.

Albert Dunwel and wife left on Wednesday for Fargo, where Mrs. Dunwell was operated on for appendicitis on Friday. Last reports state she is getting along as well as could be expected.

Clinton Lueck of this place recently had the misfortune to break one of his legs. He is at present at Jamestown, where the doctor will be able to take care of him in the best manner.

Sam Bronson, who lives at Oakes, and who travels for the Oakes flower mill, visited his parents here a few days this week, and incidentally called on his trade.

I will sell at public auction on March 14, at 10:30 a. m. sharp, all of my personal property at my farm, 2 miles south of Spiritwood. I have a lot of fine horses to sell at this sale. Teams will meet trains at Spiritwood and convey bidders to and from the farm.

Signed,
A. L. Orange

Rev. Heber leaves this week for Cleveland, where he will conduct revival services. He expects to be absent about two weeks. There will be no preaching services next Sunday.

J. N. John on was a Jamestown caller on Wednesday and by the looks of the grip that he was carrying, we do not presume to know when he will return, for he probably will take his winter vacation.
