

W. H. Tomlinson returned the first of the week from Big Sandy Mont., where he has been looking after his land and making arrangements for his removal to that place some time the coming month. Mr. Tomilson had a house erected on the land and made arrangements for having the land plowed. He is well pleased with the country out there. His land is located north of the Courtenay settlement.