

GENEVA AARESTAD

Geneva Aarestad, the fourteen-year-old daughter of John Aarestad of Grace City, died at a Fargo hospital Monday, April 4th, after a two weeks' illness.

Geneva will be remembered by Hannaford people, having visited here on several occasions with her friend Oma Isackson, and also attended school here a short time, making her home with her uncles, E. J. and G. M. Aarestad. During her brief school days in our town, Geneva's sweet face and winsome ways won the hearts of her many friends. She was in her happy teens; the time when youth stands waiting before the half open door that leads into a fairer and more promising land of dreams and flowers.

She leaves to mourn her loss, besides her father, seven brothers and sisters. Sympathy is extended to the bereaved father and brothers and sisters by Hannaford friends.
