

Olof Johnson was called to Granite Falls, Minn., last Tuesday by the death of Mrs. Johnson's uncle, Jonas Johnson. Train connections were bad and Mr. Johnson reached his destination just as the funeral services commenced. The roads in Minnesota were in good shape and there was sufficient snow to make very good sleighing.